Mr. Ellyson Talks of the Trouble in Lunenburg County.

HARD TO DEAL WITH

The Baptist Association Will Meet in Richmond One Month From To-day—Payne-Booker Wedding—Hines Out on Bond—Mrs. Leigh Dead—Paint Company to Operate at Cape Charles.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)
Richmond, Oct. 16.—Chairman J. Taylor Ellyson, of the State Committee, in speaking of the trouble in Lunenburg county, of which mention was made in the Virginian-Pilot Sunday, said that he anticipated no serious difficulty in that section, but that it was a source of annoyance to the committee.

Mr. Ellyson has heard nothing whatever from Richmond or Lancaster county as yet, and from the silence in that quarter he draws the inference that something is being done in the interests of harmony.

Mr. Ellyson said this afternoon that the Democratic party as a whole is in very good condition in the State. The troubles, he says, are altogether local and are very difficult to handle from the outside.

"To interfere in these factional fights," said Mr. Ellyson, "is very much like getting between a man and his wife when they are quarreling."

WILL MEET IN RICHMOND.

The Baptist General Association of Virginia will meet in Richmond on the 17th of next month.

A meeting of the Second Baptist Church was held just after Sunday school yesterday morning and an invitation extended to the General Association to hold its annual meeting with that church.

The invitation was submitted to the State Mission Board at a meeting held this morning and accepted. The Board acts for the Association when that body is not in session. The invitation was joined in by the Baptist churches of Richmond and Manchester.

A MORNING MARRIAGE.

Miss Margaret Hunter Payne, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junius Payne, and Mr. James M. Booker, of the Jefferson Hotel, were married this morning and left immediately afterwards for Old Point, whence they will go on a Northern tour.

RELEASED ON BAIL.

Oscar T. Hines, who shot George Vaughan at Franklin and Eighteenth streets early yesterday morning, was released by Judge S. B. Witt, of the Henning Court, in $500 bail.

Messrs. Philip C. Kelley and Iwan Muller were bondsmen. The case will again come up before Justice Crutchfield for a preliminary hearing, the date set being October 26th.

The wounded man is improving and has, it is thought, a fair chance to recover. Hines shot Vaughan because the latter assaulted him, knocking him down. The wounds are dangerous.

DEATH OF MRS. LEIGH.

Mrs. Leila Palmer, wife of Mr. E. G. Leigh, Jr., after a long illness, died Sunday morning at 7 o'clock at her country residence, near Acca.

Mrs. Leigh had been in bad health for several years, but her death was unexpected and came as a sudden shock to her husband, relatives and friends.

She leaves, beside her husband, one son, Palmer Leigh, who reached the city from Pantou Academy, which institution he has been attending, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Leigh was the daughter of Col. W. H. Palmer of this city. She was beloved by a large circle and her death is deplored, and her absence from the circle, of which she was a favorite, will be sadly missed.

Mr. Leigh is president of the Southern Manufacturing Company. He has the sympathy of many friends.

A CAPE CHARLES ENTERPRISE.

A certificate setting forth the purposes of Denney's Anti-Painting Company was received at the office of the Secretary of the Committee this morning. The company will make and sell ready-made paint, and is capitalized at from $500 to $15,000. First-year officers, all of whom are Cape Charles men, are as follows: Thomas H. Denney, president and general manager; William H. Sterling, first vice-president and general manager; J. E. N. Sterling, second vice-president and general manager; Thomas D. Denney, secretary; John P. Daniel, treasurer. The above also compose the Board of Directors.

COMMISSIONER KOLNER RETURNS.

Commissioner Kolner, who returned from his trip to Nebraska Saturday night, expressed the belief this morning that the beet sugar industry can be more profitably managed in Virginia than in Nebraska and the West, where it is flourishing and growing.

The commissioner solicits farmers of Virginia to make exhibits of grain at the Paris Exposition next year. A gallon of each grain is regarded as a proper sample exhibit. The commissioner will send shipping directions to such farmers as notify him of their purpose to make an exhibit.

ROANOKE.

BROTHERS PURSUE AND SHOOT A FIEND.

Roanoke, Va., October 16.—J. W. and R. L. Cheatham, two brothers of Little Emma Cheatham, who was assaulted Sunday by William Edward Garrison, a white man, in Carr's woods, pursued the fiend to Lithia, Va., nineteen miles north of Roanoke. There they discovered him on board a freight train.

He was sitting between two coal cars, when J. W. Cheatham drew his revolver and fired. The man rolled off the train on the opposite side and made his escape to the woods, leaving a bloody trail behind. Every effort was made to capture him, but so far he has eluded arrest.

Garrison shot and dangerously wounded A. L. Marshall, of this city, Saturday, who attempted to rescue the child from his clutches.

Southampton County Democrats Repudiate Suffolk Nominations.

The Largest Mass Meeting Held in the County Since 1896—The Action of the State Committee Repudiated—Other Suffolk News.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)
Suffolk, Va., Oct. 16.—Southampton Democrats met in mass-meeting to-day and repudiated the action of the State Executive Committee, repudiated the action of Boykin men at Isle of Wight and Suffolk, and endorsed the resolutions of repudiation adopted by the County Executive Committee with reference to the State Committee's declaration in recognizing Colonel Boykin as the regular Democratic nominee in the thirty-second Senatorial district.

It was a warm session. The big crowd of Democrats who met in the court-house was nearly unanimous in the denunciation of anti-Shands methods.

MANY SPEECHES.
Hon. John C. Parker, county chairman, was chosen to preside, with W. H. Stroud and J. W. Ridley as secretaries. Chairman Parker made a forceful speech. Hon. J. Denison Prewell, former delegate to the House, offered the resolutions and made a talk in their advocacy.

The resolutions were adopted. Other addresses were made by Judge Joseph B. Prince, Dr. J. F. Bryant and J. P. Holland.

BRADSHAW TALKS.

The voters from Isle of Wight were invited to good positions in the hall, and Dr. C. J. Bradshaw, one of the nominees from that county, made a speech sustaining the legality of his and Mr. Shands nomination. Lawyer Samuel H. Edwards, of Isle of Wight, also gave oratorical.

BOYKIN IN TOWN.

In the meantime Colonel Boykin, Mr. Shands opponent, was in town. He had selected headquarters at a hotel where he and his friends and supporters had a conference. Colonel Boykin has been seeing the electors in a quiet way and has gained some advocates.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Franklin, Southampton County, Va., Oct. 16.—The largest mass meeting of Democrats ever held in Southampton county since 1896 was held in the Courthouse at Courtland to-day. Resolutions approving the action of the County Executive Committee on Friday, October 6th, refusing to be bound by the action of the State Committee in Shands and Boykin, and endorsing the candidacy of Shands were offered.

Resolutions approving the action of the County Executive Committee on Friday, October 6th, refusing to be bound by the action of the State Committee in Shands and Boykin, and endorsing the candidacy of Shands were offered.

Hon. J. B. Prewell, Dr. J. F. Bryant, Judge J. B. Prince, Hon. J. C. Parker and others made stirring speeches favoring said resolutions and they were adopted without a single dissenting voice. The meeting was large, enthusiastic and luminous, and makes it an absolute assurance that Shands will receive the practically unanimous vote of this county on November 7th.

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 16.—There was no jury summoned in Nansemond Circuit Court to-day, but one common law case was tried. The counsel had agreed to submit it to Judge Prewell. R. A. Bain, assignee, brought suit against M. H. Holland, Jr. The court gave the plaintiff judgment for a reduced amount.

To-morrow comes the case of Wells' administrator vs. the Norfolk and Western railroad. William Wells, a brakeman, got killed on the railroad and his estate wants 10,000 damages.

PACKARD'S OPERA.

The Dan Packard Opera Company gave a very enjoyable performance at the City Hall Theatre this evening. The bill was "Mascot," the merit of whose presentation was equal to some of the high priced companies. Miss Charlotte Gilman made a pretty and vivacious debut. Montjoy Walker as Lorenzo and Gilbert Clayton as the farmer made the fun. Some of it was real fun. Miss Josephine Kirkwood was Piametta. Charles Holmes sang well. The chorus was strong, perhaps the best comic opera chorus ever heard in Suffolk.

Some of the young women were comely and well formed. The opera as a whole went well. "Fra Diavolo" will be rendered Tuesday night.

NORFOLK MAN TO WED.

A license was sold from the County Clerk's office to-day permitting the marriage of Miss Georgiana Culpepper to Mr. John Lee Overton. The ceremony will be performed in the county to-morrow.

Mr. Overton is a marine engineer of Norfolk. He is a native of South Mills, N. C. The bride-elect is a daughter of Augustus G. Culpepper and was born in Norfolk county.

GEN. J. J. WILLIAMS

The Old Hero Succumbs to the Last Enemy.

He Died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltimore, Sunday Evening, From the Effects of an Operation—Sketch of His Life.

Winchester, Va., Oct. 16.—Colonel Jno. J. Williams, Mayor of Winchester, and one of the best known men in Virginia, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Baltimore, shortly after noon yesterday. Colonel Williams had been ill for over four months, and during the latter part of the summer spent some weeks at Capon Springs for his health. He returned home much improved, but shortly afterward was again taken sick. He was sent to St. Joseph's Hospital and was operated on by Dr. McLane Tiffany, of Baltimore; Dr. W. P. McGuire and Dr. T. C. Williams, of this city. The operation was thought to have been successful, but Colonel Williams' weakened vitality was unable to withstand the shock. His funeral will take place here to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

ERRONEOUS FOOTBALL REPORT—THE WORLD'S SLANDER.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Oct. 16.—The Associated Press report of the Pennsylvania-Virginia football game, played in Philadelphia Wednesday, was evidently written by one who did not wish to give Virginia credit for her work. The statement that Ware, the captain of Pennsylvania, was responsible for Virginia's touch down, merely because he compromised on 20 minute halves, when Virginia wanted 15 minutes, is nonsensical on the face of it, and any fair minded reader will affirm that such talk sounds more like school boy's than like college men.

Whether the trick played, whereby the touch down was made, is old or not, it at least was not too old for Pennsylvania to use.

"Poe Honored by the State Which Once Disgraced Him."

This was the heading in the New York World on the unveiling of the Poe bust. This statement is entirely erroneous. We would like to see the World prove the above statement. The World also asserted in its article that Poe was justly expelled from the "tolerant university" for misconduct. It is very strange that a few cannot or will not grasp the truth concerning this accusation. That the World grossly erred in this statement, we attribute to misinformation, for its article paid the highest tribute to Poe. It is evident that when this article was written the writer did not know that Dr. P. B. Barringer had told the public on "Poe Day" that he wished to give an official denial to the allegation that Poe was ever expelled from the University. We repeat the following words of Dr. Barringer, chairman of the faculty, for the benefit of the World or any other who may yet be misinformed on the subject:

"Poe was never expelled or brought before the faculty for any misconduct while at the University, but he left an honored student in good standing, and the records are here to verify this statement."

It is time this point was settled forever, and anyone who will make the slightest inquiry will not be guilty of the error above referred to.

Jeffries and Sharkey Training Hard

Great interest is manifested in the coming heavy-weight championship battle between James J. Jeffries and Tom Sharkey, which is to come off before the Congy Island Sporting Club on October 27. Jeffries is working hard, and is more confident than when he entered the ring against the Australian. Most of the surplus flesh on him has already been removed, and his muscles are fast becoming into fighting condition. Despite Jeffries' victory over Fitzsimmons, and the fact that he has won a decision over the Irish Sailor, Sharkey has nevertheless a host of friends, who are ready to wager large amounts on his chances. Heurich's beers have also a host of friends who are always ready to stand by these pure and wholesome beverages. Phone 428.

GEN. J. J. WILLIAMS

The Old Hero Succumbs to the Last Enemy.

He Died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltimore, Sunday Evening, From the Effects of an Operation—Sketch of His Life.

Winchester, Va., Oct. 16.—Colonel Jno. J. Williams, Mayor of Winchester, and one of the best known men in Virginia, died at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Baltimore, shortly after noon yesterday. Colonel Williams had been ill for over four months, and during the latter part of the summer spent some weeks at Capon Springs for his health. He returned home much improved, but shortly afterward was again taken sick. He was sent to St. Joseph's Hospital and was operated on by Dr. McLane Tiffany, of Baltimore; Dr. W. P. McGuire and Dr. T. C. Williams, of this city. The operation was thought to have been successful, but Colonel Williams' weakened vitality was unable to withstand the shock. His funeral will take place here to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

Colonel Williams was a son of the late Philip Williams, in his time one of Virginia's most brilliant lawyers. Colonel Williams was born in this city fifty-seven years ago and has always resided here. After graduating from the Winchester Academy and the Bloomfield Academy, he entered the University of Virginia, and was studying law when the civil war broke out. He joined the Rockbridge Artillery and participated in the first battle of Manassas. He was then assigned to Chew's Battery and later to Laurel Brigade, Eleventh Virginia Cavalry. He was badly wounded during a fight at Auburn, Va., in 1862.

After the surrender Colonel Williams completed his law studies under his father and the late Judge Richard Parker, who tried the noted John Brown and followers at Harper's Ferry. Since then he has continued the practice of law here. At the time of his death he was serving his fourth term as Mayor.

Colonel Williams was counsel for and director of the Shenandoah Valley National Bank. In 1877 he married Miss Emily Gray, of Leesburg, Va., who survives him with three children—R. Gray Williams, of the University of Virginia; Miss Annie Douglas Williams and Philip Williams, of Winchester.

Colonel Williams has always taken a lively interest in the Confederate Camp. He served two terms as grand commander of the Grand Camp, his last term having expired last week.

Dr. Greene's Nervura is sold by all druggists and at all grocery stores and liquor stores and barbershops.

About the year 1840 a gentleman at that time prominent in New York society, while at Lake George with his family, was taken sick with an attack of cholera morbus. No doctor was at hand save a sort of half Indian local practitioner, who was sent for. He prescribed a preparation of rhubarb and soda which he mixed himself. Its effect was excellent and so pleased was the tourist with its results that he brought the prescription to New York and used to have it compounded at Delaplaine's drug store at the corner of 14th Street and Sixth Avenue. For many years this mixture was in use in the family, one member of which was a son who afterwards arose to eminence as a physician. This son, as is related by a brother, was: "as well as the rest of us, brought up on this medicine, so to speak." He was, therefore, very familiar with it at the time he caused its introduction at the hospital where it afterwards became so famous. It was from the origin here related that The Ripans Chemical Co. has since made the most successful of modern remedies—Ripans Tablets.

A new style packet, containing THE RIPANS TABLETS in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced form is intended for the poor and the economical. One dose of this five-cent cartons (100 tablets) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the Ripans Chemical Company, No. 19 Centre Street, New York, or a single cartons (25 tablets) will be sent for five cents. (Ripans Tablets may also be had of grocers, general storekeepers, news agents, and at liquor stores and barbershops.)
